Members and esteemed leaders of the San Andreas Senate,

It is with considerable gravity that we formally communicate the successful passage of the Articles of Impeachment against Representative Lewis Yates. Following a rigorous and deliberative process, the House of Representatives has, by a decisive margin, approved these articles. The final vote count stands as follows: 38 delegates casting their votes in favor of approving the articles of impeachment, 11 delegates voting to reject the articles, and 1 delegate abstaining from the vote on this crucial House Resolution concerning the impeachment of Representative Lewis Yates.

This outcome unequivocally satisfies the constitutional threshold as stipulated by Article V, Section 6 of the San Andreas State Constitution, which mandates a 55% majority of delegates for such an approval. The will of the House of Representatives has been clearly expressed, reflecting a thorough consideration of the evidence and allegations presented.

In accordance with the established legal framework and the explicit provisions of our state's constitution, we hereby formally transfer this grave matter to the distinguished Senate. It is now the solemn responsibility of this body to assume jurisdiction for the trial and, if deemed appropriate following due process, the conviction on these Articles of Impeachment against Representative Lewis Yates. We trust in the Senate's commitment to upholding justice and the integrity of our legislative institutions.

Sincerely,

Mary Aronson

Secretary of the House of Representatives
